PROPOSALS to build a motorway service station just south of Basingstoke on the M3 could leave the surrounding community "damaged beyond all repair", according to a Hatch Warren resident.

A planning application is currently being prepared to bring shops, fuelling facilities and parking to a site roughly the size of seven football pitches at Kennel Farm, in Dummer.

It is understood that any plans would include spaces for 245 cars and 22 Heavy Good Vehicles (HGV), as well as room for coaches, caravans and motorbikes, and a drive through facility.

A screening opinion has already been submitted to Basingstoke's council to assess the impact the move would have on the site, which is situated close to both Fleet and Shroner Wood services in Winchester.

Council officers decided last week that any proposal would not require an environmental assessment, although Hatch Warren local Sam Weller insisted that he didn't "see any reason why an application should even be considered".

Mr Weller, of Woodstock Mead, said: "The light pollution and noise pollution on Dummer, Hatch Warren and Beggarwood will be horrible."

"There should be no question of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council allowing a service station to be built here,

"I can't see any justifiable reason for imposing this on the area, as it's so close to other services."

Fire service cuts plan is given gold standard

HAMPSHIRE'S fire service has been described as a "model of best practice" for the consultation work that went into enforcing a string of cuts to the service earlier this year.

In total £4.1million was saved through a reduction in firefighters, a radical overhaul of equipment, and a change in the type of response vehicles used across each of the county's 51 fire stations.

A two-year-long consultation with Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service (HFRS) and the public decided in February that the changes would be introduced to create a "new and improved" service, while tackling a £12.2m drop in Government funding.

The 212 firefighter posts lost countywide included the reduction of eight staff positions at Basingstoke's station in West Ham Close, which is currently being rebuilt.

But after seeing 2,000 questionnaires completed and 30,000 hits online during the public consultation period between last September and December,

The Consultation Institute (TCI) has now handed Hampshire a gold standard grade for its work bringing the proposals to fruition.

TCI associate Nick Duffin said: "Hampshire embraced the consultation from the start and were entirely committed to involving staff and the public in shaping the future of their service."

He continued: "They were keen to discuss and debate their proposals and retained an open mind throughout, which ensured they came to the best-informed decisions possible."

"We would hold Hampshire up as the model of best practice for any other fire and rescue service going through such a process."

TCI works with organisations, mainly in public services, to promote best practice when it comes to involving the public and staff in key decisions and initiatives.

A third of fire engines are to be replaced by smaller rapid response vehicles over the next three years to save £450,000, while other changes introduced following the consultation have seen a commitment to invest £1.5m on new technology, including ultra high-pressure lances.

And Chris Carter, chairman of the Hampshire Fire and Rescue Authority, which runs HFRS, said the TCI commendation justified the comprehensive approach taken to gathering information and opinion during the project.

He said: "Our belief was that our residents and staff would be absolutely central to deciding the future of their fire service and would be involved right from the start."

"It is now important that we have captured our learning from this process and that we share this with other organisations to help embed best practice across the country."

Electric car charge points come to town

DRIVERS of electric cars can now charge their vehicles up at two points in Basingstoke town centre.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council has installed charging points at Central Car Park, off New Road, and Churchill Way Car Park.

The 'rapid' electric point at Central Car Park will charge a car from zero to 80 per cent in 30 minutes, with users able to park their cars for free for the first half hour.

And the 'fast' point in Churchill Way will also allow electric car users to be back on the road in around three to four hours, although normal parking charges will apply at this stop.

Other nearby points are available at the Little Chef at Popham on the A303 Westbound, and at the M3 Fleet Services, with the type 4 chargers suitable for Citroen, Nissan, Peugeot and Mitsubishi vehicles.

The council's member for community services and the environment, Hayley Eachus, said: "I hope more people will consider investing in an environmentally-friendly electric car.

"Great savings can be made by switching to electric transport and Basingstoke's conveniently located charging points make it an attractive option."

Users must download the 'Charge Your Car' app and set up an account before they are able to use any of the charging points in Basingstoke.

Teenager killed

HOOK: A 13-year-old boy was killed after a Ferrari he was travelling in crashed in North Warnborough, near Hook, on Monday.

The teenager was riding in the passenger seat of the red Ferrari F50 when the single-vehicle collision took place on the access road that leads to Newlyn and Lodge Farms in Hook Road.

The boy, who was from the Winchester area, suffered life-threatening injuries during the incident and was pronounced dead at the scene.

The driver, a 37-year-old man from Surrey, suffered serious injuries from the crash and is being treated at Basingstoke hospital, where his condition is described as stable.

Police have since launched an investigation to establish what happened, and are appealing to anyone who was in the area when the incident took place, at 8.45pm, to come forward.

Anyone with information should contact Sgt Richard Grant, at the Serious Collision Unit, on 101, quoting the crime reference number 44160315889.

Murder appeal

BASINGSTOKE: The family of a man handed a life sentence for murdering the widow of a former Basingstoke coffee merchant have launched a campaign to get him released.

Matthew Hamlen, of Camborne Close, in Eastleigh, was in February found guilty of beating 77-year-old Georgina Edmonds to death with a marble rolling pin at her home in Brambridge on January 11, 2008.

The 37-year-old was sentenced to serve a minimum of 30 years behind bars, having pleaded not guilty to the crime, with campaign group Matthew Hamlen is Innocent putting up a £25,000 reward for any information that could clear his name.

Police appeal after charity bike is stolen

AN APPEAL has been launched after a bike that was used to raise hundreds of pounds for charity was stolen near Basingstoke.

The blue and white racing bike was taken from a garage in Lomond Close in Oakley, along with a container of petrol.

It is believed that the bike was stolen on Saturday evening, although it could have been taken anytime before then from 5pm on August 13.

The bike is quite distinctive and was covered in several stickers saying "100", due to it being used by the owner to complete the Prudential 100 charity ride in London on July 31.

PCSO Andy Jones said: "We would like to speak to anyone who thinks they may have seen this bike within the last week.

"I would also like to take this opportunity to remind cyclists to take a note of the unique serial number on your bike, so that if it is stolen and later recovered, we can return it."

A-level success for borough's students

AFTER weeks and weeks of waiting, Basingstoke's students were finally put out of their misery last week as they opened up their A-level results.

And the majority were left to hug their friends and family with a massive smile on their faces as a massive 99 per cent of pupils at Queen Mary's College (QMC) passed their exams.

In fact nearly 50 per cent of the 2,000 or so youngsters that took their A-levels at the college achieved high grades of between A* to B, to set them up perfectly for the next stages of their lives.

Among those delighted was former Brighton Hill Community School pupil Jane Greenwood, who marked her 18th birthday on Thursday with a perfect results form of three A*s.

Jane's outstanding grades means that she has now secured her place to study medicine at Leeds University, with the teenager quickly moving to thank her teacher Debbie Pymm for helping her follow her dream.

She said: "I couldn't have done it without Debbie.

"She was my rock, and although maths was my weakest subject Debbie kept my focus and made sure I understood absolutely everything."

By Christian Wilson

Others to claim outstanding results were Khazna Chami, whose three A*s and one A have secured a place at Oxford University studying human sciences, and Daniel Reid (two A*s and one A), who is going to Bristol to study liberal arts.

Daniel said: "I can't thank the QMC teachers enough.

"I was very lucky to have them, and I can only hope that the lecturers at university are as excellent."

Queen Mary's College pupils celebrate their results with principal Ali Foss

QMC's overall pass results were one per cent better than last year, while over 66 per cent of students taking an Extended Project Qualification (EPQ) also gained the qualification with either an A* or A grade.

Principal Ali Foss said: "I am thrilled at our results this year, which have been particularly successful.

"Watching so many young people gain qualifications that open doors for their future is the highlight of my year, and I wish our students every success in whatever they have chosen to do.

"I am very proud of the way in which QMC staff have equipped them for the future."

Basingstoke's A-level success was also replicated countywide, with 92 per cent of students at Hampshire's colleges and sixth forms achieving two or more pass grades of between A* and E, while 78 per cent claimed three passes.

County council executive member for education, Peter Edgar, said: "This summer's results are a reflection of the hard work of students who benefit from the high quality post-16 education and training that we have in Hampshire."

Hook driver killed in three-car crash

A MAN from Hook was killed following a three-car collision just north of Hartley Wintney over the weekend.

The victim, who has not been named by police, suffered fatal injuries after the black VW Golf that he was driving crashed into a silver Toyota Prius on the A30.

Following the initial collision, the Golf then collided with a parked Renault and flipped, causing the man to suffer serious head injuries that led to him being pronounced dead a short time later.

The incident took place just after 11.30am on Sunday, with the female driver and female passenger of the Prius suffering minor injuries that required them to be treated by paramedics at the scene.

Hampshire police closed the road for five hours while they conducted an examination of the scene as part of their investigation, and recovered the cars involved.

Anyone who witnessed the collision is asked to contact PC Steve Claridge at Hampshire Roads Policing Unit in Whitechurch on 101, quoting 44160313839.

Alternatively, residents can call charity Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Heat boost for Basingstoke mobile homes

RESIDENTS at a mobile home park in Basingstoke will be keeping warm this winter with the latest energy-saving technology.

In total 27 tenants at the site in Attwood Close will benefit from air-to-air source heat pumps installed into their home by the borough council.

The Government-funded link-up with YES Energy Solutions and National Energy Action will see the authority monitor data from the Worcester, Bosch Group technology heating systems over the next 12 months.

Information from this will then be used for national statistics on the benefits of this renewable technology for park homes and small homes to see if they should be rolled out.

Council member for regulatory services and the environment, Hayley Eachus, said: "We are delighted that our residents at the mobile home park will enjoy the benefits of this new heating system, particularly over the autumn and winter months."

"The council supports the renewable energy technology used in the heat pumps."

"I hope the results from this project will enable us to make more informed decisions about using energy-saving systems in our homes in the future."

Gates to stop access into 'dangerous' ford

A NOTORIOUS ford on the Hampshire and West Berkshire border could soon be shut to traffic in a bid to improve safety.

Headley Ford, just north of Plastow Green, has seen numerous incidents of people getting stuck in the water in recent years.

A 52-year-old man, Jonathan Gammon, died in April 2012 when he became trapped in his car as he tried to cross the ford during flash floods.

By Adam Flinn

A traffic order was implemented in 2014 prohibiting vehicles from using the ford except for access, but has been repeatedly ignored, partly due to satellite navigation devices leading drivers through it.

And last week Hampshire County Council and West Berkshire Council launched a consultation on whether to install gates on either side of the ford to physically stop motorists from using it.

Hampshire executive member for environment and transport, Rob Humby, said: "We have been working with West Berkshire Council, local people who use the road and local landowners on managing Headley Ford."

"We plan to implement a permanent scheme in two parts: a traffic regulation order to prevent non-agricultural vehicles accessing the ford, and the installation of a turning head on either side of the restriction, which will require drivers to get out of their vehicles to operate a gate.

"Access for walkers, horse riders and cyclists will still be possible once the new measures are in place."

The new order will run until October, and will see farm traffic able to use the ford, while approximately 400m of Thornford Road through the ford will also be made accessible for tractors.

Billy Drummond, West Berkshire councillor for Greenham, was pleased that something was being done to close off the ford.

He said: "It should have been done years ago."

"I've got a sat nav and some mornings it tries to send me up that way, it's really dangerous."

"Sometimes it seems like it's not too bad but people have had terrible accidents there, it's a nightmare and it needs to be sorted out."

To view the proposals or to comment, go to westberks.gov.uk/consultations.

A six-man team made up of Lee Havey, Paul Jarrett, Steve Morris, Ian Cooper, Greg Moss and Brian Saunders took part in the Luxembourg Rescue Organisation (LRO) Challenge last month.

The two-day contest saw the firefighters take on crews from across the continent in dealing with five scenarios, ranging from car crashes to an explosion wreckage.

The incident took place on the westbound carriageway, at Newfound, between Basingstoke and Oakley, at around 4.25am on Saturday, with the pedestrian then taken to Southampton General Hospital for treatment.

Call police on 101 with information.

Doug and Sam cycling to honour Somme heroes

A FATHER and son from Tadley will look to improve the connection with the Armed Forces that runs through their family on a special bike ride next week.

Doug Vaughan, 54, is part of four different generations of his family to have fought for his country, with his brother, father, grandfather and great-grandfather all serving over the years.

Only a medical condition stopped 19-year-old son Sam from including his name on that long list, as his dreams of following in his father's footsteps were sadly ended when he was diagnosed with epilepsy seven years ago.

By Christian Wilson

But the teenager has found another way to carry on the military tradition by persuading his dad to join him on a 250-mile cycle to France to mark the centenary of the Battle of the Somme in the First World War.

And after witnessing him overcome the struggles brought on by his medication, Doug expressed his pride in his son for organising the mammoth ride.

He said: "This was all my son's idea.

"He was really disappointed when it sunk in that he couldn't join the army.

"I'm extremely proud of him, and the fact that he's put all of his problems behind him is a credit to him."

Doug and Sam, who is a student at the University of Liverpool, will set off on their three-day trip from the Imperial War Museum in Lambeth next Wednesday, before then heading towards the Memorial to the Missing in Thiepval.

In addition to paying their respects, the duo are also hoping to give something extra back to the military by raising funds for SSAFA - the Armed Forces charity.

Sam said: "The Somme touched the lives, minds and families of so many around the country, I feel this is a good way of remembering its impact.

"This will be a tough event, but I feel as we know the importance of where we will be in what we will be doing, this will not concern us."

The final day of the ride will see them visit the Memorial in Pozieres, with Doug, who is cycling in memory of grandad Robert Davies, who served and was injured in France, admitting it would be a "special day" for the family.

He added: "This is the biggest thing we've ever done as father and son, and we're both really looking forward to it.

"I don't know about getting to the end before Sam, but I've still got it in my legs, I think."

A303 fatal lorry crash victim is revealed

POLICE have named the man who died following a crash involving two lorries near Micheldever last week.

David Weeks, 57, of Maple Close in Shaftesbury, was badly hurt after the small lorry he was driving crashed on the A303 westbound, close to the turning for Overton and Micheldever on Monday.

While the driver of the other vehicle was unhurt, Mr Weeks suffered serious injuries from the collision, and after being taken to hospital he sadly died later that night.

The incident took place at around 11.55am, with Hampshire Constabulary closing parts of the road for several hours, and then launching an investigation into what happened, and appealing for witnesses to come forward with information.

Officers would particularly like to hear from the driver of a tractor that they believe was driving on the carriageway shortly before the crash took place, and may therefore be important to helping establish what happened.

Anyone who knows the identity of the driver of the tractor, was at the location at the time, or may have any information of any kind to help police with their enquiries, is asked to contact them on 101.

CarFest fun

LAVERSTOKE: Motoring festival CarFest South returns to Laverstoke Park Farm over the bank holiday weekend.

The three-day event, which was founded by former Top Gear presenter Chris Evans four years ago, will see residents entertained with motors and music from Friday through to Sunday.

Different types of cars will be on show throughout CarFest, which is raising money for Children In Need.

No air display will take place at this year's event, after pilot Kevin Whyman was killed during a display at last year's CarFest North at Oulton Park.

Results day

BASINGSTOKE: Pupils will collect their GCSE results today.

Last year saw the Costello School in Crossborough Hill beat the national average as 70 per cent of pupils claimed A* to C marks.

Elsewhere, 60 per cent of students at Brighton Hill Community School achieved five or more A* to C grades.

Early finish for council's £7m road improvements

THE life of more than 165 miles of roads across Hampshire have been prolonged by an investment from the county council.

A total of £7million of surface dressing improvements have been completed two weeks ahead of schedule by the authority to help remove potholes.

Roads across the county, including in Basingstoke and Deane, have been tended to as part of the project, which is designed to seal the road surface from water damage.

Council workers started the process of surface dressing in the spring, with the project benefiting from a £1.48m Government grant to help fill in more than 28,000 potholes in Hampshire.

And the authority's executive member for transport and environment was quick to express his delight at the works being completed ahead of schedule.

Rob Humby said: "The county council's Operation Resilience team has been working tirelessly over the spring and summer months to complete our annual surface dressing programme to ensure Hampshire motorists can keep moving."

By Christian Wilson

"With an average of 140 miles of roads and footpaths treated each year, the team are already putting their skills and expertise into planning next year's programme."

"By undertaking this preventative maintenance work the life of the roads are extended, therefore allowing the county council to use its limited funding efficiently and effectively to keep Hampshire moving on the road network."

Surface dressing involves roads being sprayed with bitumen to provide a new waterproof seal, and then adding a thin layer of stone chippings to improve skid resistance.

Paul Anderson, account director for contractors Amey in Hampshire, said: "Working with such a varied team requires a lot of careful and detailed planning from all those involved to deliver the programme on-time, let alone deliver the programme early, and despite some difficult weather conditions which could have affected our timescales."

"We're already well into planning for next year's season."

Countdown continues for half marathon

ORGANISERS of the Basingstoke Half Marathon are appealing to people from all over the world to sign up to the town's popular annual race.

As many as 1,300 people from across the country and beyond pounded the pavements to complete the 13.1-mile race last October.

Vincent Boit emerged as the victor with a time of 1:04:43, with the race through the Basingstoke and Deane countryside set to return for the sixth time on Sunday, October 2.

Runners will start and finish at Hackwood Park, next to War Memorial Park, and will be greeted by a few scary faces along the way as they pass through Ellisfield's annual scarecrow festival.

Race director Felicity Edwards said: "We are so pleased that residents have taken the half marathon into their hearts as much as the runners have, and we are really excited about the race and look forward to welcoming everyone for another year."

Bank holiday BBQ advice

BASINGSTOKE'S council has urged residents planning to throw barbecues during the August bank holiday to be careful that they cook meat properly.

The authority is supporting the Food Standards Agency's campaign to help people avoid food poisoning this summer from leaving certain foods rare in the middle.

Burgers and sausages that are served partially cooked can remain contaminated with harmful bacteria, and lead to the spread of salmonella and certain types of E. coli.

Cabinet member for regulatory services and the environment, Hayley Eachus, said: "Extra special care should be taken with food preparation for children, the sick and the elderly.

"You can't see, smell or taste bacteria, but it could be there and it can make people seriously ill."

The Food Standards Agency also advises that residents wash their hands after touching raw meat, and avoid cross-contamination by storing raw meat separately before cooking.

Cllr Eachus added: "If you buy a burger or hot dog that isn't cooked thoroughly, return it to the vendor straight away.

"Don't worry about making a fuss, it's better to be safe than sorry."

Famous face wishes Owen luck at school

A BASINGSTOKE boy has received a special surprise in front of millions of television viewers across the country.

Getting older for Owen Howkins has been much harder than for most 10-year-olds as he has battled growing pains for most of his life.

The youngster was diagnosed with a 'two in a million' genetic disorder called Schwartz-Jampel syndrome (SJS) at the age of two that leaves his muscles in a permanently tense state.

Owen, from South Ham, has gone on to become one of the most famous faces in Basingstoke over the last two years, as the heartwarming tale of his relationship with his three-legged Anatolian Shepherd dog Haatchi has touched hearts all across the nation.

And 'Little B' was given another big boost last week, as he received a message from none other than legendary Queen guitarist Brian May on ITV show This Morning, wishing him 'good luck' as he gets ready to start secondary school in the autumn.

The rock icon said: "It's an amazing transition to make, life changing, but I know it's going to be great for you.

By Christian Wilson

"God bless you. Good luck and have a great time.

"Growing up is painful but has to be done and you're making a good job of it."

The South Ham lad also appeared on This Morning two years ago, and can also count three-time Formula 1 champion

Lewis Hamilton as one of his famous friends, after he met the Mercedes driver last year.

Speaking of his step up to secondary school, he said: "I'm excited, I'm also going to miss my friends from junior, but it's good to make new friends as well."

And Owen, who inspired the people of Portugal last year by completing the Lisbon Marathon in a chair pushed by step mum Colleen Drummond, also told hosts Eamonn Holmes and Ruth Langsford that he had been helping a fellow SJS sufferer from America, called Giovanni Owen said: "He got bullied at school, so he's going to a new school.

"I gave him advice and my advice was if anyone bullies you, tell the teacher."

Birthday fun

BASINGSTOKE: Children and staff at Kiddi Caru's Basingstoke day nursery marked the 150th anniversary of the birth of Beatrix Potter last week with a host of dedicated activities.

The iconic author's most beloved creations were celebrated as the children read stories featuring Peter Rabbit, Jemima Puddle Duck and Mrs Tiggy-Winkle, as well as decorating rabbit-themed biscuits.

Youngsters also played with pet rabbits, hopped around the nursery's garden, and played pin the tale on the bunny.

Summer Kicks

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The borough's mayor Jane Frankum will attend charity concert Summer Kicks tomorrow evening.

The Phoenix's magical line-up

A HOST of music, comedy and even a beer festival come to The Phoenix Theatre and Arts Centre in Bordon between now and the end of the year, announced in the theatre's autumn line-up.

Starting on Friday, September 16, the Station Road venue will see a diverse range of entertainment come to Bordon, kicking off with a performance from the theatre's in-house production team 'The Phoenix Players'.

For two weekends, the performers will take part in 'Rock 'n' Roll is Here to Stay' on Friday, September 16, Saturday, September 17, Saturday, September 24 and Sunday, September 25.

The show is made up of some of the most popular songs from the 1950s and '60s, with music from iconic names including Buddy Holly, Elvis Presley and Roy Orbison featuring in the show.

The end of the month sees the Phoenix Beer Festival take place on Friday, September 30 and Saturday, October 1.

This will be the third year the festival has taken place at the Station Road theatre.

A number of different ales from local breweries will be on offer for visitors to sample, while music comes courtesy of different bands from around Hampshire.

By James Richings

October sees comedians Ellie Taylor and Lee Nelson arrive at the Phoenix for some stand-up fun.

Ellie, who is best known for appearing in the Comedy Central sitcom 'Brotherhood', arrives with her 'Infidelity' UK tour on Saturday, October 15, with the 32-year-old also stopping at Basingstoke's Forge Theatre in the same month.

And Lee Nelson comes to the Station Road venue with a 'work in progress' show.

Nelson, the alter-ego of Simon Brodwin, is best known for starring in his own sketch and stand-up show, 'Lee Nelson's Well Good Show'.

November starts off with the arrival of Darlington-based theatre group Oddamount Theatre, who will perform their production 'From There to You From Here to Me' on Saturday, November 2.

The play tells the story of Agnes, who is watching her mother slowly die as each day passes.

So to keep things positive, the kind and loving daughter tries to create new memories with her mother before she eventually passes away.

Covers band The Firm are ready for their latest gig

SINCE 2013, Aldershot-based band The Firm have been making a name for themselves.

Made up of guitarist and vocalist David White, Joe Groombridge on the drums and bassist Andrew Leaver, the band have been performing at a number pubs, bars and clubs all over Hampshire.

By James Richings

One of their most popular destinations is the Fox and Hounds in Fleet, and they'll be returning to the Crookham Road venue tomorrow night, Friday, August 26.

"We always seem to be well received by the venue and its audience and that always puts us in a 'happy place' even arriving," David told the Observer.

"Our experience of playing many venues has leant us to one particular calling - play to the people that enjoy or appreciate us being there.

"Sometimes we play to a venue that is heaving with people having a great time, sometimes it is only a couple of people at the bar.

"No matter what, we aim to entertain."

The band are known for being versatile with the songs they choose and play at their gigs.

With audience members ranging from children to OAPs, the crowd at the Crookham Road pub can expect to hear modern day tunes from the likes of Mika and John Mayer to classics from artists such as Ray Charles and James Brown.

However, despite the fact that the threesome all battle their musical talents with their day jobs, David insisted that the passion to give their audience a good show at every gig they do is their main goal.

Every show that David, Joe and Andrew do is always split into two sets.

"I used to teach guitar for a living but have just recently acquired a 'normal' job," David said.

"Andrew is an electrical safety technician but is currently training to be a bass guitar tutor and Joe is just finishing of a degree at ACM in Guildford.

"Beyond that, the world is his oyster."

He added: "Our gigs are usually a mix of madness, grooves and showmanship and we have never rehearsed so our gigs have developed right before people's eyes over the last three years.

"We still try to add spontaneity at every opportunity and go with the flow.

"If one of us wants to try/do something musically, then we go with it.

"Essentially we like it to be a show for people to enjoy and sometimes improvising live can add to that experience. Second set is always just 'party time'."

The free gig will start at 9pm.

Thu, Sept 8, 7.45pm Corn Exchange, Newbury ALEX HORNE AND THE HORNE SECTION

The Horne Section pits some of the finest contemporary comedians against each other to complete the most unlikely task. Following their hit BBC Radio 4 series, and many years of sell-out shows at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and London's West End, don't miss everyone's favourite Dictionary Corner regulars on 8 out of 10 Cats Does Countdown and the first band to ever host Never Mind The Buzzcocks (BBC 2)! Expect a heady mix of spontaneous stand-up, spectacular performance and outlandish musical talent led by the brilliant comedian Alex Horn

Sat, Sept 10, 8pm New Greenham Arts Centre, Newbury MARTIN CARTHY

A ballad singer, ground-breaking acoustic and electric guitarist and authoritative interpreter of newly composed material. For more than 40 years Martin Carthy has been one of folk music's greatest innovators, one of its best loved, most enthusiastic and, at times, most quietly controversial figures. His skill, stage presence and natural charm have won him many admirers, not only from within the folk scene, but also far beyond it. Trailblazing musical partnerships with, amongst others, Steeleye Span, Dave Swarbrick and his award-winning wife (Norma Waterson) and daughter Eliza Carthy have resulted in more than 40 albums, but Martin has only recorded 10 solo albums, of which the much anticipated Waiting for Angels (Topic TSCD527) was the latest. Whether in the folk clubs (which he continues to champion), on the concert stage or making TV appearances (he was the subject of the acclaimed 'Originals' music documentary strand on BBC 2) - there are few roles that Martin Carthy hasn't played. He's a ballad singer, a ground-breaking acoustic and electric-guitarist and an authoritative interpreter of newly composed material. He always prefers to follow an insatiable musical curiosity rather than cash in on his unrivalled position. Perhaps, most significant of all, are his settings of traditional songs with guitar, which have influenced a generation of artists, including Bob Dylan and Paul Simon, on both sides of the Atlantic.

Fri, Sept 16, 7.45pm Corn Exchange, Newbury JOHNNY CASH ROADSHOW

Welcome back the Johnny Cash Roadshow, a show not to be missed by avid fans or the casual listener. Also the only show to be endorsed by the CASH family! This year prepare for a musical adventure with the biggest production to date.

The UK's No1 celebration of Johnny Cash, fronted by award winning singer/songwriter Clive John, re-creates with astounding accuracy and truly captures the essence of what it was like to be at a real Cash show!

Thu, Sept 22, 7.30pm The Haymarket, Basingstoke THE LINDISFARNE STORY

Tyneside group Lindisfarne exploded onto the UK music scene in 1970 with a string of unforgettable songs. The likes of Lady Eleanor, Meet Me on the Corner, Fog on the Tyne and Run For Home quickly established the band as the standard-bearers for acoustic-based rock. In this entertaining show, former members Billy Mitchell and Ray Laidlaw tell The Lindisfarne Story from the very beginning. Hear them perform acoustic versions of the band's classic songs, and relive moments from the band's history as they share behind the scenes stories illustrated with archive video and stills.

Sat, Sept 24, 3pm The Haymarket, Basingstoke THE RATTLER

Described as 'the true and original story of Rumpelstiltskin', the brand new family opera, The Rattler is an interactive retelling of the age-old fairy tale with folk-infused music, puppetry and inventive storytelling.

Every year in Hobsmoor, the villagers gather to hear the ancient tale of The Rattler. In the story Alyson - a weaver's daughter - dreams of escaping her humble life, while Prince Aiden longs to be free of royal expectations. When the mysterious Rattler hears their wishes, he begins manipulating them for his own ends. Will goodness prevail? Come and help tell the story in Basingstoke.

Sat, Sept 24, 7pm The Forge, Basingstoke EXIT 6 FILM FESTIVAL

An event for filmmakers and film-lovers, the Exit 6 Film Festival will take place at multiple venues in the town centre throughout the day. The top 6 short films will then be screened in The Forge, where awards will be presented for best film and audience choice.

Fri, Sept 23, 7.30pm The Haymarket, Basingstoke THE BOLLYWOOD BRASS BAND MEETS JYOTSNA SRIKANTH

Don't miss this evening of virtuosic violin playing and funky brass and drums which come together to create instrumental versions of film songs from Bollywood and the magical world of South Indian films. The show features video sequences from the original films, synched to the live music. The Bollywood Brass Band is the UK's pioneering Indianstyle wedding band, playing the great tunes and dance rhythms of Bollywood. Jyotsna Srikanth is Europe's leading violinist from the South Indian classical tradition.

Sat, Sept 24, 7.45pm The Anvil, Basingstoke THE BIG CHRIS BARBER BAND

Chris Barber OBE is one of the last British jazz legends around and an icon of traditional jazz in United Kingdom. This year he celebrates his 67th anniversary as leader of his band. The BIG Chris Barber Band features everything from New Orleans to blues to late 20's Ellington, played with extraordinary panache and skill. You will hear songs like Bourbon Street Parade, Jubilee Stomp, Petite Fleur, Ice Cream, When The Saints... and many more. His band stands out as one of the finest, if not the finest, of its kind anywhere in the world. You can count on an exciting evening of high quality jazz and blues which will appeal in equal measure to the aficionado and the newcomer. Chris and his band are respected by many other jazz, blues and pop musicians, like Van Morrison, John Mayall, Eric Clapton, Bill Wyman, Mark Knopfler and many more...

Sun, Sept 25, 7.30pm The Haymarket, Basingstoke DON'T TELL HIM PIKE! AN AUDIENCE WITH IAN LAVENDER

Whenever Arthur Lowe's Capt George Mainwaring found Private Pike wanting, there was only ever one retort - "Stupid boy!" But in the new Dad's Army film, original actor Ian Lavender plays a Brigadier, and finally gets to turn the tables on his former Home Guard commander in Walmington-on-Sea. Dad's Army was one of the top TV comedy shows of all time, delighting audiences of over 18 million between 1968 and 1977. The exploits of the hapless Captain Mainwaring and his inept platoon are still being shown to this day on TV all over the world and this year has seen the release of a new feature film. Ian Lavender starred in the original Dad's Army as Private Pike, the teenager whose mum made him wear a scarf "to protect him from the croup". He shares with the writer and broadcaster Chris Serle a generous helping of brilliantly funny anecdotes about the making of the series, at rehearsals, in the studio and on location with his fellow volunteer soldiers.

Making inroads into the UK market: Review of the Mitsubishi ASX ZC-H 1.6 Diesel 4WD

Little known drive, a lot of fun

The ASX is one of those cars you don't see a lot of, and that's not because it's rubbish but more because people tend to follow trends or what their neighbours own.

But over the last few years Mitsubishi have really started to increase their sales in the UK and it is my hope that buyers start to look more closely at what Mitsubishi have to offer and that in turn will drive sales for what I consider to be a very good car maker indeed.

Interior & Technology:

Mitsubishi really has gone above and beyond in contrasting the use of textures and materials inside the ASX, a lot of which gives you a pleasing visual impact once you sit inside.

And of course the detail around the dashboard and controls has been brilliantly done by the Mitsubishi engineers and designers.

The ASX's generous equipment levels are also good and even standard models receive electric windows, manual air conditioning, Bluetooth,

By Anthony Yates

seven airbags and stability and traction control.

If you step up to the ASX ZC-M then it gets even more exciting - adding in climate control air conditioning, cruise control, DAB radio, rain and rear parking sensors and xenon headlamps, whilst the ASX ZC-H adds satellite navigation, black leather seat trim and a panoramic glass roof.

You will also find a 419 litre boot with the helpful addition of a wide opening tailgate as well as a large 26 litre underfloor tray and a 60:40 split rear bench seat.

On the road:

My test car was fitted with 4WD which means it can do no wrong in my book. The ASX felt stable even when pushed hard into the corners and it felt very controlled and firm.

Remember this is an Active Sports X so it is meant to do all those things a normal car can't - and I am happy to report all is good.

Power and Efficiency:

Powered by a 1.6L 8 valve four-cylinder SOHC intercooled turbocharged diesel engine with 112bhp @ 3600rpm and a max torque figure of around 270Nm @ 1750rpm.

Fuel consumption is also very good returning a very impressive 60mpg (combined). There is a 2.2litre version with 147bhp but I was more than happy with the performance of the 1.6litre fitted to my test vehicle.

It will achieve 0-62 in around 11.5sec and top speed will max out at 111mph.

To sum up:

The ASX is a great car for a great price.

Yes it is a little unknown - and maybe that does make it the underdog - but I can assure you that this is no pet hate.

For that reason alone - I am going to give it five stars as an excellent indication of just how much fun this vehicle is to live with and to drive.

Price: Car on test from £23,499

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Hallahan helps 'Stoke to claim their first win

Rainfall stops Basingstoke in their tracks

RAIN stood in the way of Basingstoke and North Hants from claiming a sixth win in seven matches on Saturday.

The Bountymen completed their batting innings and were in the process of tearing through Liphook and Ripsley's openers before the heavens opened to end the match after 71 overs.

Unlike previous seasons, Basingstoke's batsmen have rarely let themselves down this season in the Southern Premier Cricket League Division One.

And while they didn't here, they were far from at their best at Portsmouth Road, as Craig Williamson and William Phillips both claimed 23 runs to help their side limp to 105-4.

The wickets quickly fell after that however, with only eighth-batsman Martyn James (19) claiming a reasonable tally to see Basingstoke reach 157-all out.

Bountymen skipper Mitch Stokes immediately showed his worth at the start of the host's innings - removing Giles Cover for a duck and Rob Nickel for just a single run to leave Liphook in trouble on 11-2.

When James struck soon after to claim the wicket of Gabriel Broadhurst (12) and leave Liphook on 22-3, it seemed that only the weather would be able to deny the visitors victory.

And this proved to be the case, as Suman Ganguly (42 not out) allowed his side to stay in the game for long enough for the rain to fall, with the score on 81-4 after 21 overs.

Basingstoke are next in action this Saturday, when they will host Bournemouth at May's Bounty.

BASINGSTOKE Town finally picked up their first win in the Southern Premier League at the fifth time of asking on Saturday.

In their best performance of the season by some distance, 'Stoke put Kettering Town to the sword at the Ark Cancer Charity Stadium to claim a 3-0 win.

A first half brace from George Hallahan paved the way for the victory, with Sam Deadfield then grabbing a third straight after the break to wrap up the points.

Terry Brown's side had been unlucky not to claim that elusive first win in the seven days before, as they were held to back-to-back 1-1 draws with Stratford and at home to Hayes & Yeading.

The previous Saturday's clash at Stratford saw Hallahan open his account for the season, and it was the striker who was the man to fire his side into the lead against The Poppies after 20 minutes.

A neat one-two between Deadfield and Marcus Johnson-Schuster freed the right back up to cross low to the near post for the young forward to tuck the ball into the top corner.

And Hallahan was given the perfect chance to double his and his team's tally 15 minutes later, as Ben Stephens bundled over Robert Atkinson in the box.

The end result never seemed in doubt after that as Kettering keeper Paul Walker was then beaten from the spot kick low to his right to make it 2-0.

Spencer Weir-Daley then saw a rare Kettering chance blocked by Matt Partridge, before Johnson-Schuster and Deadfield then both narrowly missed the target with long-range efforts.

The misses wouldn't matter however, as with the second half just three minutes old, Deadfield took a pass from Jarvis on the edge of the box, before curling into the corner with his left foot, to claim his first Basingstoke goal.

Kettering pressed hard to get back into the game, pushing players forward but struggled to really threaten Town keeper Alex Tokarczyk, while the hosts looked dangerous on the break.

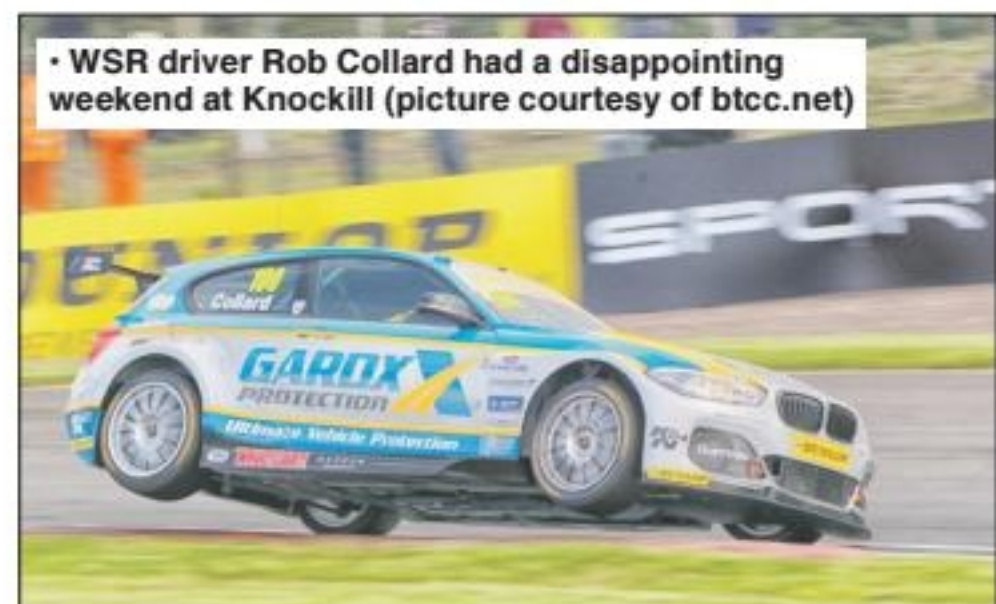

But Brown's 'Stoke had to settle for 3-0 in the end to move them up for 18th place in the table, ahead of two games in the space of three days against Cinderford on Saturday, and Frome Town on Monday.

Defiant Collard vows to stay in title fight

ROB Collard will look to leave his Knockhill shocker in his rear view mirrors when he returns to British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) action on Rockingham this weekend.

The Hook driver led the championship standings heading into the meeting in Scotland, but after failing to score in two of the three races, he will now travel to Northamptonshire 32 points behind pace setter Sam Tordoff.

A fifth-place finish in race two proved to be Collard's only points on August 14, as he was all the way back in 17th in the first race, before then being taken out in a crash with Colin Turkington in race three.

But with just three more race meets left to compete in this season, Collard has refused to rule out closing the gap on his West Surrey Racing (WSR) teammate, as he aims to claim his first BTCC title.

He said: "I may be 32 points behind Sam in the championship, but that kind of gap can easily be eroded over the course of a BTCC weekend, so my philosophy is to attack at every opportunity."

"I'll have 57kg in my BMW, which makes it lighter than it has been for some time, and that could be very important in qualifying [on Saturday]."

"Rockingham is a unique track with its layout including bits of oval and infield, but it's become one of the best places for racing in the BTCC, with good overtaking."

Romone arrives

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town made their 15th new signing of the summer on Friday after bringing Romone Rose to the club.

The striker made his 'Stoke debut in Saturday's win over Kettering Town, and joins the club on non-contract-dual registration, having started off the season with Wealdstone.

The 26-year-old has worked with manager Terry Brown in the past at AFC Wimbledon, having started his career at Queens Park Rangers.

Title setback

CRICKET: Hook and Newnham Basics beat the rain but still lost at Bournemouth by 115 runs on Saturday in the Southern League Division One.

Second placed Hook were bowled out for 115, following the host's knock of 230-6, to leave leaders Sarisbury Athletic just one win away from the title.

In Division Two, Hartley Wintney reached 125-9, before seeing their home match with Fawley abandoned because of the weather in the 44th over.

GB GOLDEN GIRL ALEX WINS IN RIO

ALEX Danson has brought a gold medal back to Odiham after making women's hockey history by helping Team GB claim victory at the Olympics.

The forward wasn't on the scoresheet but led from the front as her side beat the Netherlands on penalties in Friday's thrilling finale to spark euphoric scenes in Rio.

Danson and co were once again inspired by the superhuman goalkeeping of Maddie Hinch, who saved all four Oranje penalties to pave the way for Hollie Webb to win the shootout.

But for all the final day heroics, GB would not have faced the Dutch had it not been for Odiham's hockey star, who claimed five goals in Brazil to finish as her side's top scorer and match her haul in London four years earlier in the process.

Danson's most important contribution came during Wednesday's semi-final with New Zealand, as she fired a brace either side of a Helen Richardson-

Walsh goal to inspire her side to a 3-0 win.

But GB were reliant on the impressive Hinch two days later against the Dutch, as the keeper guessed right to save Maartje Paumen's seventh minute penalty.

And the 2012 bronze medallists capitalised on the Netherlands' misfortune just two minutes later, with Lily Owsley firing home to give her side the lead, following some excellent play from Sophie Bray.

Kitty Van Male drew her side level with a fine finish at the start of the second quarter to make it 1-1, and things then got even worse for GB six minutes before the break as Paumen powered a shot into the corner.

But chasing a perfect eight wins from eight, Danson's side responded as quick as a flash - this time Crista Cullen providing the finish after being found by Giselle Ansley.

After throwing wave after wave of attack forward, the Netherlands claimed a deserved third goal from a Van Male set piece on 37 minutes.

But amazingly, GB then pulled it back once again eight minutes from the end, as Danson sliced a close range effort into the path of Nicola White to spin an effort agonisingly out of the Dutch defence's reach and over the line.

The keepers proved to be the stars in the shootout, as Oranje stopper Joyce Sombroek blocked both Richardson-Walsh and Danson's efforts.

But while Hinch kept pulling out save after save, Richardson-Walsh fired in a priceless penalty stroke after Bray had been brought down to put GB in the driving seat.

And despite most of the crowd cheering on the Netherlands, Webb showed nerves of steel to smash home on the turn to send Danson and co into dreamland.
